The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh, Say can you see by the dawn's early light,

What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming

Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?

And the rocket's red glare, and bombs bursting in air,

Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!

Oh! say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh! thus be it ever, when free men shall stand,

Between their loved homes and war's desolation;

Blest with victory and peace, may the Heaven-rescued land

Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation!

Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,

And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"

And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

MRS. RICHARD DENNY SHELBY
PRESIDENT GENERAL
NATIONAL SOCIETY DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

March 5, 1982

Dear Utah Daughters:

As you assemble for your 1982 State Conference, my special wishes are extended to each of you for an inspiring, constructive and enjoyable meeting.

The overwhelming approval of the President General's Project, "A Legacy Preserved," by the 90th Continental Congress will enable us to begin the restoration and preservation of our magnificent complex of buildings. Each Daughter shares in ownership of these historic buildings and your support of the project is essential to restore them to their original structural integrity and beauty.

The President General is looking forward with pleasure to her official visit with you next year. Let us join together in service to "God, Home and Country"; service which exemplifies the legacy bequeathed by our Founders.

Faithfully,

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Daughters Who Have Entered into Eternal Life
March 1981 - 1982

CALL TO REMEMBRANCE: "Let us now with quiet and grateful hearts remember before God our dearly beloved dead. They have left our earthly companionship but still they live within our hearts. The remembrance of them is dear and blessed."

RESPONSE BY DAUGHTERS: "They are not dead who live in hearts they leave behind. In those whom they have blessed, they live a life again. Eternal life is theirs, throughout the years, and time declares their immortality."

SCRIPTURE: "I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day."
II Timothy 1:3 - KJV

PRAYER "Oh Thou, by Whom we come to God,
The Light, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer Thyself hath trod.
Oh Lord, teach us to pray."

ENSEMBLE: "Sweet Hour of Prayer" Arranged by Robert Manookin
Vocal - Mrs. R. Max Rogers
French Horn - Mrs. E. Harrison Powley
Piano - Mrs. Donald J. Risser

SILENT MEDITATION

POEM:

"Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed . . .
Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gate of death;
He enters heaven with prayer."

--James Montgomery

TRIBUTES AND LIGHTING OF CANDLES

This service of memorials expresses our hope of immortal life and our belief that love can never lose its own. The candles symbolize the Light of Loving Remembrance. With this Light, we give honor to those comrades whose lives we shared but who now walk with us no more. With grateful and loving remembrance, let us now name them:

Mrs. James Monroe Hays
(Naomi Geraldine Swift)
Uintah Chapter

Mrs. Nelson Tisdale
(Arlein Pratt)
Spirit of Liberty Chapter

Mrs. Franklin Riter
(Lesley Day Woodruff)
Spirit of Liberty Chapter

POEM:

'Tis not alone we tread the path
Of deep sorrow and great pain,
For God still watches over us
Through sunshine or through rain,
And though today the sky seems dark,
We may have the faith that His love
Will ease our grief and loneliness
With unfeigned blessings from above.

MUSIC:

"My Faith in Thee"

Arranged by Geoffrey O'Hara

Mrs. R. Max Rogers and Mrs. Donald J. Risser

SCRIPTURE: "But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the HOPE of salvation."

I Thessalonians 5:8 - KJV

POEM:

SLEEP, IT IS BEST

"Sweet as the tender fragrance that survives
When plucked flowers breathe out their little lives,
Sweet as the song that once consoled our pain,
But never shall be sung again,
Is thy remembrance. Now the hour of rest
Hath come to thee. Sleep loved one, it is best."

— Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

BENEDICTION: "The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep our hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of Him, our Father, remaining with us forevermore.

Amen

PRAYER

Our God, The Eternal Father:

We thank Thee for our earthly home, a planet in the vast universe of Thy making, with its mighty mountains and valleys, its seas, the wind, the rain, the vegetation and all creatures that dwell thereon, even man in the image of Thyself.

Grant us the foresight and courage to combat the hatred and evils that hide these beauties and wonders of Thy making, that divide Thy children. We know that Thou wouldst have this home a haven of love, untroubled by greed, by war, hunger and fear, unvexed by distinction of race, color, sex, or creed.

Grant us a spirit of brotherhood, the wisdom and vision to comprehend the greatness and honor of our fellowmen. We pray for charity in heart, that we might give of our courage and substance to the hungry, the poor, the needy, the oppressed - for we know if their freedom is taken away, our freedom is insecure.

We pray for the leaders of our Nation, and of all other Nations and Peoples of the earth. May they have Thy Spirit to direct them, that faith, hope, and love may abide with them.

We thank Thee for our noble heritage, for our valiant Fathers, for our privilege of membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution. We pray Thee to bless the leaders of this great organization and that we may all wholeheartedly carry out its objectives, this day and in all the days to come.

For these favors and blessings we give thanks and ask for continuance in the worthy name of Thy Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

—WILLIAM TYLER PAGE

My DAR Creed

WE BELIEVE in a patriotism which loves one's country as the dearest and best in the world and does not refuse to defend it.

WE BELIEVE in a loyalty to its government which leaves no room for socialism or communism.

WE BELIEVE in a love of peace which leaves no room for the pacifism that would buy peace at any price even at the sacrifice of truth, honor and righteousness.

WE BELIEVE in a living faith in God that leaves no room for atheism.

Such ideals have a vital, spiritual appeal. Linked with memorials to America's past they seek the perpetuation of the noblest and best for America's present and future.
