The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh, Say can you see by the dawn's early light,

What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming

Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?

And the rocket's red glare, and bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!

Oh! say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh! thus be it ever, when free men shall stand,
Between their loved homes and war's desolation;

Blest with victory and peace, may the Heaven-rescued land
Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation!

Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"

And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

DAUGHTERS WHO HAVE ENTERED INTO ETERNAL LIFE

March 1988 - March 1989

CALL TO REMEMBRANCE: "Let us now with quiet and grateful hearts remember before God our dearly beloved dead. They have left our earthly companionship but still they live within our hearts. The remembrance of them is dear and blessed."

RESPONSE BY DAUGHTERS: "They are not dead who live in hearts they leave behind. In those whom they have blessed, they live a life again. Eternal life is theirs, throughout the years, and time declares their immortality."

PRAYER: Our Father in Heaven, we now approach Thee, happy that Thou hast received these, our beloved, now gone from us. We are grateful that the inspiration of these dear Daughters was sent to bless us, and that memories of them will continue to light new fires of service within us and unto those who follow.

POEM: "To close the eye, to fall asleep,
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death . . .

"It cannot be, for we live on
A little step away.
The soul, the everlasting life
Has found a better day."

C. J. Hanson

SCRIPTURE AND PRAYER: ECCL. 12:7 "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it."

Our dear Father, we know that we come from Thee, and that if we keep Thy commandments, we shall return unto Thee. This, we believe.

The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

—WILLIAM TYLER PAGE

My DAR Creed

WE BELIEVE in a patriotism which loves one's country as the dearest and best in the world and does not refuse to defend it.

WE BELIEVE in a loyalty to its government which leaves no room for socialism or communism.

WE BELIEVE in a love of peace which leaves no room for the pacifism that would buy peace at any price even at the sacrifice of truth, honor and righteousness.

WE BELIEVE in a living faith in God that leaves no room for atheism.

Such ideals have a vital, spiritual appeal. Linked with memorials to America's past they seek the perpetuation of the noblest and best for America's present and future.
