

Utah State Society
Daughters of the American Revolution
113th State Conference

April 23-24, 2010★ Salt Lake Plaza Hotel★ Salt Lake City, Utah

The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a Republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its Constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies.

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

(Fourth Verse)

O thus be it ever when freeman shall stand
Between their lov'd home and the war's desolation!
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n rescue land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserv'd us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just

And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

The American's Creed Christine Schultz, State Second Vice Regent

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a Republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. Memorial Service

*For Daughters of NSDAR who have entered into Eternal Life
May 2009 - April 2010*

HYMN: "O God, Our Help In Ages Past" Judy Barking, pianist
O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast
And our eternal home.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guide while life shall last
And our eternal home.

CHAPLAIN:

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, yet shall he live. And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die."
(John 11:25-26)

RESPONSE BY DAUGHTERS:

They are not dead who live in the hearts they leave behind. In those whom they have blessed, their memories live on with us. Eternal life is theirs as promised by our Lord; and Time declares their immortality by His grace.

SCRIPTURE: (read in unison) The 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside still waters.
He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths
Of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yes, though I walk through the valley of the Shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You
Are with me. Your rod and Your staff,

They comfort me. You prepare a table before
Me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint
My head with oil; my cup runs over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the Days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of
The Lord forever. Amen.

PRAYER (Chaplain):

Almighty God, You are close to the hearts of all of us
who are saddened by the loss of these friends.
Strengthen and console us with the warmth of Your love, and the assurance that the human spirit is enduring and indestructible. Even as we pray for perfect peace for those gone from us, we ask for courage for us, the living.
In Jesus' Name, we pray, Amen.

PIANO SOLO:

Judy Barking, pianist

CHAPLAIN:

Let us now, with reverent and humble hearts, remember our beloved departed ones. Let us remember with gratitude and thanksgiving, their precious companionship. We now offer flowers in their memory:
They are:

Adjournment of the 113th Utah State Society NSDAR Conference

State Conference Standing Rules

1. Members of the Conference shall be seated before the opening of the session. No one will be seated, except by the pages, during any part of the program.
2. Any business unfinished at the time of recess shall be resumed at the next business session. If business scheduled for one session is finished before the time of adjournment, items scheduled for the next session shall follow.
3. Reports to the State Conference: In the absence of a State Officer or Chair, her report will be filed. In the absence of a Chapter Regent, her report may be read by the Chapter Vice Regent or her alternate.
4. No member shall be allowed to speak more than twice on the same questions on the same day, nor more than two minutes at a time.
5. When addressing the Chair, a member shall rise and give her name and that of her Chapter. Procedure of addressing the Conference: "Madam State Regent."
6. Motions shall be presented in writing and signed by the maker and the second, and sent immediately to the Recording Secretary.
7. Voting shall be on Saturday morning between 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. Results will be announced Saturday morning.
8. All cell phones will be turned off or set to vibrate during business sessions.

Protocol

The fundamental principles of protocol are dictated by ethics, courtesy, good manners, and common sense. The order of precedence for the NSDAR was established with the assistance of the State Department of the United States and is used as a guide for all DAR functions.

Everyone should be in the room and seated before the processional begins. White gloves are to be worn during the processions. Rise when the Flag of the United States of America enters the room, face the Flag and salute until the Flag is brought to a standstill. Do not continue to salute after the Flag is still. Remove the glove on your right hand; do not have anything in your left hand while saluting the Flag.

Everyone should stand for the Invocation and remain standing through the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, the American's Creed and the National Anthem. (Do not salute during the American's Creed.) Because of health reasons, rising and standing may present problems for some individuals, and common sense allows them to remain seated.

Courtesy Recognition: Members should rise upon the entrance or introduction of the President General or State Regent. The assembly should stand during the reading of messages from the President General, NSDAR, and from the Governor of the State of Utah.

Chapter members should rise briefly when the Chapter Regent is called for her report and when the chapter is called during the Memorial Service.

When speaking, address the chair only as Madame State Regent. At the conclusion of a report, thank the chair by saying Thank you, Madame State Regent.

Members should not walk in front of the head table during a business session. To approach the microphone, go around the back of the assembly.

White gloves are to be worn during the receiving line. Please remember to keep receiving line conversation to a minimum.

Remember! The appropriate attire for the business sessions is suit, dress, or dressy pantsuit; formal or semi-formal wear for evenings.

As a courtesy to all, please be sure to turn off your cell phone before business sessions or programs begin!

God Bless America, my home sweet home.
God Bless America, my home sweet home.

America the Beautiful

O Beautiful for spacious skies
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountains majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.
